THE JUSTICES BUSY.

The Criminal Classes the Only Ones not Taking a Vacation.

ROBBERIES AND MINOR OFFENSES.

A Colored Man in Custody on a Serious Charge—Peace Warrants and Petty Cases Galore—Matters in the Criminal Court, which is about to Draw to a Close for a Season.

Just now it is a cold day when a new case of robbery does not develop, and as usual, cold days have been rare in July. The justices have been kept pretty steadily busy for several weeks, and the county jail is getting fuller every day. A large and varied roster of cases will demand the attention of the grand jury when it meets the first Monday in September, and if the list continues until that time to lengthen at the present rate it will require a week to go through it.

Night before last, or early yesterday morning, one Dr. Devore, from out in Ohio, was wandering about on the South Side when he fell in with a colored man named Levi Green. Green, on some pretext, it is alleged conducted the doctor to a secluded spot, and there robbed him of his pocketbook, containing $8.30. He was seen by passers-by to take the purse from his pocket, so the police expect to prove.

Officer Minkemyer arrested Green, and he was lodged in the lockup. Devore, who was so stupefied as to arouse the suspicion that he had been drugged, was also locked up to sleep off his jag. Squire Gillespy issued a warrant to hold Green on, and he will be arraigned before him to-day.

Green was once before arrested for robbing a man in a South Side saloon.

IN THE CRIMINAL COURT.

Various Matters Disposed of—Arguments for To-Day.

In the criminal court yesterday Ella Jerome, indicted for keeping a house of ill fame, was arraigned and entered a plea of guilty. She was fined $20 and costs by Judge Jordan.

Carlor Sutton, under indictment for bribing and intimidating a witness, gave bond in the sum of $100, with James A. Henry as surety, for his appearance at the next term of court.

Robert Hawkins, committed to jail in default of bail for his appearance on a charge of loitering in a house of ill fame, gave bond in $50 and was released.

This afternoon the motion for a new trial of William Groves, the ex-superintendent of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, convicted of a felony, will be argued by counsel and submitted to Judge Jordan.

This forenoon Judge Campbell, of the circuit court, will hear argument on the application for an appeal in the case of William T. Emblen, convicted of renting a house to be used as a house of ill fame.

IN SQUIRE ARKLE'S COURT.

Criminal Business of Considerable Interest Transacted Yesterday.

The case of John H. Smith, charged with entering a residence out at Pleasant Valley with intent to rob, was up for trial in Justice George Arkle's court yesterday. After the evidence had been heard the justice let Smith off with a fine of $1 and costs and a jail sentence of ten days. It seems that Smith was greatly under the influence of liquor at the time of entering the house.

James Harson and Minerva Boring were up before Squire Arkle charged with unlawful cohabitation. Harson was committed to jail to await an examination at 7 o'clock this evening, and in consideration of the woman having several children she was released on her own recognizance for appearance.

In the same court the case of O. Hathaway vs. Elsie Myers, in which the plaintiff sued for the recovery of a spring wagon, came up and was tried before a jury composed as follows: J. H. Miller, Robert Simpson, William Mitchell, Walter Butler, J. F. Bonnett and D. M. Campbell. Captain B. B. Dovenor represented the plaintiff's interest, while the defendant's attorney was Colonel Arnett. The verdict rendered was for the plaintiff. A motion was made for a new trial and will be argued this morning at 10 o'clock.

HELD FOR COURT.

Two Criminal Cases Tried in Justice Gillespy's Court.

Before Justice Gillespy yesterday John McAllister was up for robbing Mrs. Etta Ditty, who keeps a house of ill fame on Tenth street. The robbery took place in June and since then the police have been on the outlook for McAllister, but until recently he was out of town; on his return he was immediately arrested. There were three charges against him, one by Mrs. Ditty for stealing $33, and on this in default of bond he was sent to jail for appearance at the criminal court. The second charge was preferred by John S. Ditty, for stealing $15. On this charge the justice fined him $10 and twenty days in jail. The last charge was preferred by the Wheeling Title and Trust Company and was for the larceny of an auxiliary bank; fine $10 and ten days in jail.

The Tice-Weidobusch-Beck cases came up in Gillespy's court. Annie Tice swore out a peace warrant against William Weidobusch. Weidobusch swore out a similar warrant against the Tice woman, and also one against James Beck. The case is an unusual one. The woman's husband is in the penitentiary, and, ignorantly, she thought she was free to marry again, and did marry Weidobusch. Through legal advice the woman decided she had done something wrong, and refused to live with Weidobusch, and as he continued to call at her residence at all hours of the night she got out the warrant. Weidobusch, from spiteful motives it is supposed, swore out the warrant against Mrs. Tice and against Beck, who is a boarder at her house. All the cases were dismissed at the complainant's cost.

WHEELING TO CHICAGO.

A Pittsburgh Cyclist Will Start for the World's Fair via This City.

Harry Mercer, of Bluff street, will start to-morrow for Chicago on his bicycle, says Wednesday's Pittsburgh Post. He is going to make the trip alone and will go over the old National pike. Mr. Mercer, who is a popular member of the Century club, and who belongs also to the L. A. W., will be given a send-off by a number of friends as he starts out through the West End. Mr. Mercer will carry all his baggage on his wheel. He expects to be gone altogether four weeks.

Mr. Mercer will go to Wheeling, where he is well known from having made a number of century trips there, and will be met by a delegation of L. A. W. wheelmen, who will accompany him part of the way. Since he joined the Century club this season he has rolled up a number of 100-mile rides, and the progress of his journey will be watched with interest by the local wheelmen. After passing Wheeling he will go to Ashland, Ky., and then proceed to Columbus, from which point he will ride up through Ohio, heading toward the World's Fair.

Bicycle Club to Meet.

The newly organized bicycle club, the Wheeling Athletic Wheelmen, will meet this evening and adopt a constitution and by-laws, also elect officers for one year. Committees to take hold of the arrangements for the state meet of the West Virginia wheelmen, which will take place in this city soon after the state fair in September, will be selected and the movement started in earnest.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Matters of Minor Moment in and about the City.

The city street hands will receive their month's pay to-day.

One disorderly made up the police court yesterday morning. He paid $1 and costs.

A power of attorney from the Waverly Oil Company to C. P. Brown, Jr., was yesterday filed with Clerk Hook.

The residence of the late Jacob Wise, corner Market and Eighth streets, will be offered at public sale on Tuesday, August 1.

JOHN WESTERLY, of East Liverpool, in attempting to board a Wheeling & Elm Grove train yesterday morning, fell and broke his arm.

The digging up of Seventeenth street at the intersection of Woods and also of Eoff, to lay large crock sewers, was begun yesterday morning.

TWENTY-TWO people went from this end of the Wheeling & Lake Erie railroad to Chicago yesterday. The Lake Erie is picking up considerable World's Fair business.

At 10 o'clock this forenoon the council committee on equalization and appeals will hold its first meeting to consider petitions for corrections of erroneous assessment from the First ward.

YESTERDAY forenoon William Hamilton and his wife were arraigned before Squire H. C. Peterman on peace warrants sworn out by each for the other. After a hearing they were required to give bond in $50 each for their good behavior for a year.

Work is progressing satisfactorily at the Mozart park incline. The iron contractors, Sheffer Bridge Company, of Pittsburgh, are now putting the iron work for the incline plane railway in place. It is a tedious job to haul the heavy iron up the steep declivity.

Island people are long-suffering and easily satisfied, but they have begun to kick vigorously on the nauseating stench that emanates from the sewers in that part of town. The sewers there have not been flushed out once this year, and the islanders want to know the reason why.

A more dangerous board walk would be hard to find than the one leading from McColloch street down to Baltimore. About every other board is rotten and at least partly gone. Several children have recently been caught and received slight injury. Unless speedily repaired a more serious mishap may occur, and the city might come in for a damage suit.
